Call for Papers

Phoenix, Ariz. – December 28, 2015 – The Arizona State Board of Education is requesting the submission of any research-based papers and reports related to the feasibility of including a menu of local and/or statewide assessments in an A-F accountability system. These papers and reports may also include discussion about multi-level, multiple measures models and/or data points. The papers and reports will be collected and shared at future Arizona State Board of Education A-F School Accountability Committee meetings and/or at Arizona State Board of Education Board meetings. Please submit your papers to inbox@azsbe.az.gov and include “Feasibility of Menu of Assessments” in the subject line. Research-based papers and reports will be collected through January 11, 2016.
