State Board of Education to hold Special Meeting

Phoenix, Ariz. – December 7, 2015 – The State Board of Education will hold a special meeting on Wednesday, December 9, 2015 regarding unresolved investigator cases and potential reporting errors in the system. The State Board of Education recognizes the importance of matters that impact the health and safety of students and will take appropriate action.

On Wednesday, the State Board of Education will meet to discuss actions to prioritize resources to address these issues. The State Board of Education looks forward to continuing collaborative efforts with the Superintendent and her staff at the Arizona Department of Education in addressing these cases and creating processes for resolution.

An agenda will be posted consistent with public meeting law. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 9, 2015 at 2:00 p.m. in the current Board Room located at 1535 W Jefferson St., Room 122 in the Department of Education building.
